LMI

TRAINING SCHEDULE remaining 2020 (starting dates)

Effective Personal Leadership

This program results in the participant being better able to manage his or her own needs and goals in a way that the social and physical environment is experienced as a place with many possibilities. The main goal of this program is to set out personal strategies and to increase self-knowledge, self-esteem, self-confidence and self-respect, so that it is very easy to trust and accept others. The most appreciated aspect of this program is that it makes participants so strong that they start a continuous series of realized goals.

Duration : 16 weeks training; 1 session per week

Starting dates : Tuesday, November 10
Wednesday, December 9.

Price : US$ 1,900.00

Effective Communication Program

This is a very practical program that leads to a number of skills that enable participants to better understand themselves and others. Plans are also being developed to communicate more effectively and to bridge communication problems and barriers in cooperative and teamwork on the work floor and in private context.

Duration : 7 weeks training; 1 session per week

Starting dates : Tuesday, November 10

Price : US$ 1,500.00.

Effective Selling Strategies

This program focuses on two aspects of sales, ie. skills and attitudes. In these two areas, most sales representatives can best use support and encouragement. Already within a few weeks

(sometimes within a few days) after the start of this training program, results are visible such as: more frequent potential customers contact, higher sales, larger orders, growing markets, higher customer satisfaction and other actions that can be measured in revenues and increased profits.

Duration : 7 weeks training; 1 session per week

Starting dates : Monday, November 23

Price : US$ 1,500.00.

Effective Leadership Development

This program has been developed to replace the Effective Supervisory Management program with the aim of transferring the focus from management to leadership.

The ELD puts more emphasis on mainly inspirational and motivational leadership with the aim of achieving high performance of employees. The program is strongly focused on promoting the performance and responsibility of employees. The transition to self-performance and motivational/inspirational leadership of groups is the main goal here.

Duration : 9 weeks training; 1 session per week

Starting dates : Tuesday, November 10

Price : US$ 1,750.00.

Effective Management Development

A program that is mainly intended for determining the direction of a part or the entire organization. It is especially recommended at the higher level because it not only analyzes the internal organization, but also the relationship with the external environment and the market. It includes matters that have to do with vision, mission, strategies, objectives, SWOT, but also skills to motivate the people involved. This program is intended for both novice and experienced managers.

Duration : 11 weeks training; 1 session per week

Starting date : Wednesday, November 11

Price : US$ 1,750.00.

Effective Personal Productivity

A strong practice-oriented training that enables the participant to achieve a greatly increased productivity within the period of 7 weeks. The newly developed skills are of such a nature that they can easily be transferred to team members and others. This program increases goal-oriented behavior, achieving goals and better use of resources.

Duration : 7 weeks training; 1 session per week

Starting dates : Friday, November 19

Price : US$ 1,395.00.

My Time Effective Personal Management

This program is one of the most successful "time management tools" because it provides participants with skills in a very short timeframe that increases performance by 20-30%. In addition, a system is demonstrated to comply with all commitments and priorities.

Duration : Three 4-hour work-shop, of which
2 for supervision/guidance in implementation

Starting dates : Friday, November 13
Friday, December 18

Price : US$ 275.00.

(These workshops are complementary to all the other programs).

Leadership For Women

Because girls are raised differently than boys in many cultures, women develop a difference in attitudes. This makes women look at life differently and therefore act and respond differently than men. It is still noticeable that, despite the many efforts that women show, they have more challenges to gain a leading position.

Women have proven to be very good leaders if they learn specific new attitudes that have already proven to be successful in other leading women. This special program has been written to make women the best possible leaders they can be.

Duration : 11 weeks training; 1 session per week

Starting date : Wednesday, November 18

Price : US$ 2,000.00.

Effective Team Dynamics

The aim of the program is to develop skills for the participants to increase team spirit. Due to the synergy of the team, the success of the group is more than if each would have performed separately. The productivity of the group is increased by improved interpersonal relationships.

Duration : 4 weeks training; 1 session per week

Starting dates : Monday, November 16
Monday, December 14

Price : US$ 1,100.00.

Effective Motivational Leadership

With this program participants are taught knowledge, skills, attitudes and behavior that enables them to motivate themselves, but even more others, to achieve goals together with their teams. It develops participants to use skills to successfully lead others to better performance and in achieving higher productivity.

Currently this program is our most popular worldwide because it helps group leaders to drastically increase the performance of their team through increased responsibility, ownership and motivation of their employees.

Duration : 9 weeks training; 1 session per week

Starting dates : Thursday, November 12

Price : US$ 1,750.00.

Effective Strategic Leadership

This program gives participants knowledge, skills, attitudes and behavior to determine and manage organizational needs and goals. The most important thing is that participants change into visionary leaders.

ESL also trains ways to implement the strength of the organization and develop strategies to achieve a higher level of organizational success.

Duration : 7 weeks training; 1 session per week

Starting dates : Wednesday, November 18

Price : US$ 1,750.00.

P.S.: EML, EPL and ESL training start at 4 or more registrations.

The rest starts with 6 or more applications.

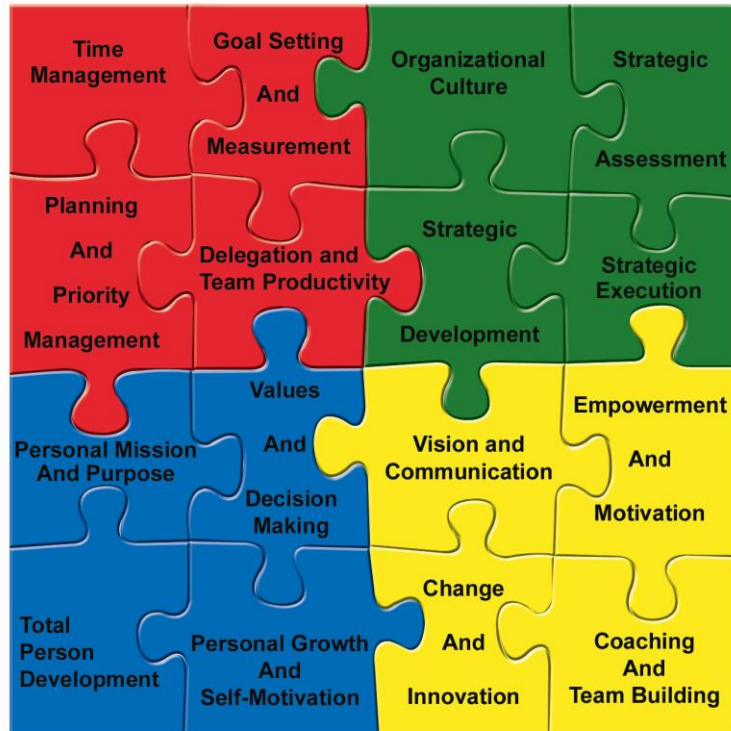

Participants can come from the same or from different organizations.
